Barcelona

Have you ever thought about leaving your comfort zone and playing with the surprise factor when deciding on a decorative light fixture?

Ver versión online

That is: placing an unpredictable, eye-catching, slightly "out of place" luminaire in a space where common sense would indicate otherwise. At ALMA Light we are sure that adding a discordant and risky note to a monotonous decorative combination is a bet that turns any interior design into a success.

The ALMA Light catalog is full of interesting proposals to let your imagination run wild and add a pinch of decorative anarchy to a project. Do dare to break with the established rules, for example with a BIG BROTHER, TOTEM or PICA floor lamp as a suggestive focal point in a monochromatic and predictable living room; a large THECHANDELIER pendant lamp in a bedroom, a huge THELIGHT suspension in a sober living room, a striking TRIBECA CHANDELIER in a minimalist hallway, a THEPALM pendant in a traditional kitchen, a large CONSTELLATION ceiling lamp in a routine office space...
