TheLight in Iceland

View online version

The 'Keflavik Luxury Hotel & Wellness Retreat' located in the Icelandic town of Keflavik (municipality of Reykjanesaer, Reykjanes peninsula), is a four-star hotel that combines high-end accommodation with exceptional wellness experiences. Its new spa area evokes serenity, where silence harmonizes with sophistication through noble materials, refined textures, and distinctive design features. Highlights include tiles signed by Versace, exclusive upholstery and wallpaper, and wall lamps from our THELIGHT collection.

THELIGHT includes three elegant chandeliers with 12, 18, or 30 arms, along with a 3-arm wall lamp, precisely the one shown in this project. Each piece is crafted in iron, available in finishes such as gold—used in this installation—nickel, white, or black. Every arm conceals a powerful LED that gently illuminates a solid sandblasted methacrylate diffuser, producing warm, inviting light.

THELIGHT is a play of contrasts that blends past and present, vintage touches with a contemporary aesthetic, and classic design with innovation. Its bold yet serene presence adds elegance, refinement, and character to any setting.

We truly love this project.
